Dear Parents,

Next week, as part of their PSHE lesson, Year 1 will be learning about PANTS (the underwear rule).

Launched by the NSPCC in 2013, the PANTS rule helps children develop an age-appropriate understanding of private parts being private and the importance of keeping them covered. It also refers to appropriate touch and being able to say 'no' – essential for ensuring children can keep themselves safe. The session may include naming of body parts.

More information can be found via the NSPCC website Let's talk PANTS with Pantosaurus! | NSPCC

If you have any questions, please speak with Ms Clarke after school on Friday or Mrs Scragg on Monday morning.

Yours sincerely

Jen Ferretti
Headteacher

What are the PANTS rules?

- Privates are private +
- Always remember your body belongs to you +
- No means no +
- Talk about secrets that upset you +
- Speak up, someone can help +
