Dear Parents / Carers,

As the end of term draws near, the shops are starting to fill with end of term 'teacher' gifts and cards. Whilst we know that some families like to show their appreciation to school staff for the year that has passed, we do not want any to feel under pressure to spend money, especially during the difficult financial times we are facing.

Cards, gifts and best wishes are always gratefully received and much appreciated but please be reassured that they are not expected. If you do wish to do or give something, very often, homemade cards and the spoken words are the most treasured!

Best wishes and thank you for your continued support,

Mrs J. Ferretti
(Headteacher)
